WASHINGTON AFFAIRS

(Special to The Bulletin.) Washington, Feb. 1.—Whether or not President-elect Harding will get his request granted and the necessary appro-priation bills for the fiscal year be pass-ed before Marsh thi is still in doubt. The determination of a few men to block The determination of a faw men to block a wate on the emergency tariff measure may block the wheels of action on appropriation measures, and as embarrass the incoming administration in setting through at an early date, the reconstruction measures which both Mr. Harding and the country feel are essential to a return to normal conditions. Day ofter eight goes by with intermidable discussion and friction developing during each attempt to secure decisive action on any of the great meganires before congress. Someone is certain to rise in his sent and either make a noint of coder, move an amendment which he knows is impressible to get through to make a speech of some length that the day's work is lost.
